The Manama/Gr Store. Our Kind of Muslin Underwear

WE put a great deal of stress on the making of our underwear. We are anxious to impress upon you the fact that the operators who do the sewing on it get the highest prices paid in the country for that kind of work. This means a great deal, but it does not mean that our prices are therefore high. We make our saving on the bigness of the order, which allows a great many economies. The difference between high-class labor and cheap labor is apparent to any one who will look at the seams and the general finish of our kind of garments as contrasted with,-well, with

Again, the question of material. There are cottons and cottons. The kind we use is the best. There is no lime in it to make it seem heavy, no starch in it to make it seem firm. Washing won't hurt it,—it's honest stuff, and as it is here, so it will always be until it positively wears out. If you have had experience with the every-day kinds of sale underwear, you can point this distinction yourself.

Six hundred thousand pieces of the best and cheapest garments New York ever saw were here this morning. More Yet we advise an early selection. The assortments will never

Ribbons of the Best, at Half

THERE were one million yards of new ribbons put on sale yesterday morning. The prices are very much under the regular, in many cases only half the regular. It is a sale of immense magnitude, and by which you should hasten to profit. Even a million yards will not last a long while if all days are like yesterday.
